

World Partners for Development and its partners empowering rural communities in Ghana to make their own sustainable solar light system to replace their carbon polluted kerosene and oil wick lanterns.

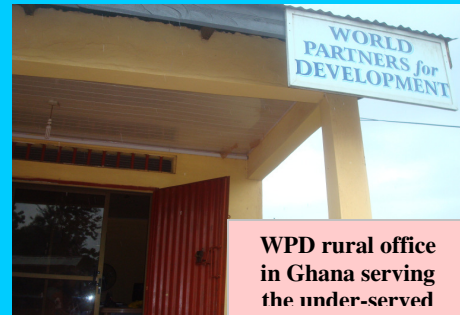

Locally made Solar Lanterns

Make Your Own Solar Light from your local materials

Improved locally made Solar Lanterns

WPD rural office in Ghana serving the under-served

Training community members on solar light construction

Rural folks enjoying their locally made solar lanterns

